MISS SUSIE SAUNDERS and little brother, Miller, have returned from a protracted visit to friends and relatives in Louisville.

MR. AND MRS. J. E. FARRIS are very grateful to their neighbors and friends for their valuable assistance in trying to save their home and contents.

By an oversight the names of Mrs. J. F. Holdam and Miss Bertie James, of Crab Orchard, were omitted from the Lexington party to see Jefferson.

MISS NANNIE VANDEVER went to Lexington yesterday to be one of a box party given by Mrs. Harriett Glascock Hull at the Jefferson performance last night.

MR. WILLIS ADAMS, of the National Publishing House, of Boston, is here selling that company's maps—something new and something you'll want if you see them.

MISS EFFIE HUFFMAN has as her guests Misses Lillie Roberts and Annie Evans, of Danville, and Misses Annie Bronaugh and Bertie James, of Crab Orchard.—Lexington Democrat.

HIGGINS WOODS, of Cincinnati, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Adella Woods, here. We are glad to state that he is prospering in the Queen City.

DR. J. W. GUEST, of Louisville, spent several days with his brother, Basil Guest, at Crab Orchard. We are glad to know that the latter gentleman is improving.

MR. W. G. MCKINNEY, formerly of Stanford, but who has made Montgomery, Ala., his home for years, is a frequent contributor to the Daily Journal of that city. A recent article on "A Montgomery Miser" is very interesting indeed.

YOUR property may burn next. See Jesse D. Wearen and insure it before it is too late. He represents the best companies in the country.

THE Korean government has promulgated a law enforcing the penalty of death for opium smoking. It's a pity Stanford can't enact a similar law for cigarette smokers.

MISS MINNIE PULLIAM, of the Shelby City section, is entitled to the blue tie as a chicken raiser. She has 250 young chicks and 30 hens setting.

POLICEMAN CRUM, who was killed in Danville last week, used to live in Stanford. He worked for J. B. Dennis, who ran a carriage shop here. A number of our older citizens remember the dead officer.

J. M. PHILLIPS will offer at auction on May 18 eight beautiful building lots cor. East Main Street and Logan Avenue. Read a description of them in another column and call on him for a plat of them.

PEARL.—In appointing John Pearl to be magistrate in Laurel county to fill a vacancy, Gov. Beckham proves his sagacity and general understanding of the situation. Mr. Pearl is one of the best democrats and truest of men, and his appointment will be hailed with delight by his friends.

LONG RUN.—The Stanford Roller Mills, J. H. Baughman & Co., proprietors, had a long run last week. The mill started up at 12 o'clock Monday morning and made not a single stop until about 7 Saturday evening—about 140 hours. There's no telling how much money the clever proprietors made during that time.

NOTHING LIKE IT.—In a letter to a gentleman here stating that he could not furnish additional tickets for Jefferson, ordered by telegraph, Manager Charles Scott, of the Lexington Opera House, says that there was nothing like the demand for tickets ever seen there before. Men stood in line waiting for the sale of tickets to commence 28 hours and Mr. Scott had to return over $1,200 sent him by out-of-town patrons, for tickets.

IN the song recital to be given by Mrs. Cecelia Eppelghausen Bailey at Walton's Opera House, April 20, with Mrs. Lee P. Huffman, as accompanist, she sings and acts in costume the Margherita's Jewel Scene, from the Opera Faust according to Goethe's German version, and fairly entrances her hearers. Lovers of music are looking forward to the rare treat in store for them and the Opera House will doubtless be filled to hear the charming vocalist.

INDICTED AND TRIAL SET.—Reuben Quinn, the Negro who shot Policeman Crum to death in his dive in Danville, was captured at Ludlow and brought to Danville at noon Saturday. He was indicted yesterday and his trial set for tomorrow, Wednesday. The trial will likely last only a few hours, as there were no witnesses to the killing, and is our Friday's paper we expect to tell when the first legal hanging Boyle has had in years, will take place. The feeling is very bitter against Quinn and nothing short of hanging will satisfy the outraged people of Danville and surrounding country. Quinn boarded a freight soon after leaving Lexington and when discovered by the crew he was invited to continue his ride. A telegram to Ludlow had officers at the depot when the train arrived and the Negro was soon in the clutches of the law. Marshal G. T. Helm and Sheriff G. W. Coulter and their deputies are entitled to great credit for their work in running down Quinn and the people will not soon forget their efforts.

A HEAD END collision of a work train and a through freight occurred near Pineville Friday afternoon. Wm. Sharp, engineer on the work train, was instantly killed. W. R. Fretwell, conductor on the same train, can not live, and Capt. Wilbur on the through freight, was slightly injured. Barney Upton, engineer on the same train, and E. L. Wilson saved their lives by jumping from their engines. The two trains were running about 25 miles an hour when the collision occurred. Both engines were completely demolished. Sharp jumped from his engine, but was caught by a car of coal. He leaves a wife and six children. Mr. Fretwell died Saturday after horrible suffering. He lived at Rowland for years and "Old Fret," as he was familiarly known, had friends by the hundreds here. He was very popular with his fellow railroaders and was held in esteem by the company, which always kept him in a good job. A wife and several children survive. The remains were brought here yesterday and interred in Buffalo Cemetery under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which order Mr. Fretwell was a devoted member.

HAY, corn, oats and all kinds of feed cheap for 10 days only. J. H. Baughman & Co.

I WILL sell Bronze turkey eggs and Pekin duck eggs at $1 per setting. Mrs. J. E. Farris, Stanford.

MRS. SUSAN SPRAULIN, sister of Mrs. D. A. Twaddle, now of Corbin, is dead. She formerly lived in this county.

GEORGE L. PENNY, trustee of the jury fund, has received the money due jurors at the last term of circuit court, and can now pay all claims.

HUSTONVILLE FAIR.—Hustonville claims July 24, 25 and 26 for her fair and people are already looking forward to the good time they will have there.

HORSE SHOW POSTPONED.—On account of the bad weather of Saturday the horse show at Hustonville was postponed until next Saturday when good horses will be there by the dozen.

LOOK.—Mrs. G. B. Pruitt, of Moreland, will show a beautiful line of spring and summer millinery on Friday and Saturday next, 19 and 20. Ladies should by all means see this beautiful stock.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is preparing to print pictures and sketches of the candidates composing the invincible democratic ticket, which will show that they are not only a handsome but a well pedigreed set both as to family and as to democracy.

THE Boyle Circuit Court started off right, sending four to the penitentiary the first day. There may be three sent to the gallows before the present term expires. A negro crap shooter caught a fine of $500 and a 24-year sentence. Let the good work continue.

THE damage suit of Claude Becker against the L. & N. for being wounded while trying to save the life of little Mary Vannarsdale, who was killed by a freight while crossing the Knob Lick bridge, has been reversed by the court of appeal. Peremptory instructions were given for the company, but the higher court decides that the evidence was sufficient to warrant a verdict by the jury. A decision in the Vannarsdale case has not been reached.

W. POWELL HALE, the noted young impersonator, lecturer and reader, of Tennessee, will appear for the second time at the Female College chapel, Stanford, Tuesday, April 23 at 8 P. M. All who heard him before are loud in their praise of Mr. Hale as an impersonator of marked ability. His lecture is under the management of Prof. E. L. Grubbs, of the Male Academy, and tickets are being sold by Misses Clara Cooper, Kate Bastin, Lillie Martin, Ella May Newland and Howard Withers.

THE commencement exercises of the Stanford Colored Public School at the Opera House Friday evening proved both enjoyable and entertaining. The singing by a chorus of 30 or more was extraordinarily good, while the solos, duets and double quartettes were very creditably rendered. The graduates, Misses Eliza Emery, Mary Cook, Mary Emery and Mary Atkins, delivered their well prepared essays like veterans in the cause and neither used or needed notes. Prof. Stepp sang a pretty solo which added to the good program of the evening. Rev. Fry, of Louisville, presented the diplomas in well chosen remarks. His prayer and talk previous to doing so were both good and were well received. Prof. Isaac Fisher, of Danville, made a short talk congratulating the graduates and their teachers. Perfect order was preserved.

MATRIMONIAL.

James Adams and Miss Belle Farris, of the Bee Lick section, were married last week.

William Carey, a widower of 68, and Miss Lucy Blunt, just 20, were married at Huntsville, Ala.

The supreme court has decided in favor of Peter Lee Atherton, of Louisville, in the famous divorce suit against him.

Invitations to the marriage of Miss Isabella Bailey to Dr. Charles Poplin Harvielle, of St. Louis, fix the happy event to occur at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Steele Bailey at 10 A. M., May 1.

When Benjamin Netton went to the home of Mrs. Fanny Johnson in Christian county to make her his wife, he found that she had fled, so he returned his license to the clerk endorsed: "No property found."

Mrs. Martha Lewis, 84 is dead at Paducah, because of the downfall of her son, Richard Lewis, who, while postmaster at Ragland, this State, forged money orders for $500 and was sent to the penitentiary.

Mrs. Alice Gladys Breckinridge Castleman Burns, who claimed to be a daughter of Gen. John B. Castleman, of Louisville, and who has just been indicted for bigamy at Jersey City, has been shown to be a fraud.

The Omaha Presbytery has voted to recommend that the clause in the church law providing that the sister of a man's deceased wife is to be regarded in the same light as his own sister and his relation to her is a bar to marriage under the church laws, be expunged.

THIS AND THAT.

Hon. D. J. Curry, a wealthy citizen of Mercer, is dead.

Wm. McGee shot Robert Benge in Laurel. Particulars unknown.

G. A. Swinebroad sold a bunch of stock heifers at Danville yesterday at $23 and bought 80 hogs for May delivery at 5c.

"Old Lexington Club" distillery in Jessamine, owned by Gordes Bros., burned, causing a $30,000 loss, partly covered by insurance.

At Birmingham, Walter Quadrall, aged 13, was given 50 years in the penitentiary for assaulting the three-year-old daughter of Sheriff Pritchard.

The First Presbyterian church of Richmond instructed its representative to the Synod to vote against the proposition to consolidate Central University and Centre College, or any kindred propositions.
